TO ALL PROSPECTIVE BIDDERS/CONTRACTORS

As a proactive step towards ensuring timely, quality bids, the City of Lincoln is encouraging Contractors to comply with the following changes in obtaining addendums and submitting bids for Public Works projects. Purchasing will attempt to issue all addenda by means that provides a proof of receipt to prospective bidders and others who have obtained a set of bid documents.

- It is the intent of the City not to issue any addendum later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the date and time for receipt of bids.
- An addenda to change bid deadline to a later date or withdraw the solicitation of bids may be sent out anytime before the bid deadline.
- Purchasing will fax addenda to all known plan holders to the name and fax number provided when obtaining bid documents. Purchasing will obtain fax transmittal confirmation for the record.
- It shall be the responsibility of the fax recipient to forward to the appropriate person responsible for submitting bid proposals.
- Bidders shall ascertain prior to submitting their bid that they have received all addenda issued, and they shall acknowledge receipt of addenda on the proposal form.
- Copies of the addenda will be available on the City of Lincoln, Purchasing's website: www.lincoln.ne.gov
Search Keyword: Bid
- Bidders should monitor the bid listing website for any addendums prior to bid opening.
